U.S. Rep. Brad Miller Announces Office and Staff Changes

Washington, D.C. – U.S. Rep. Brad Miller announces the closing of his Greensboro office on October 12, 2012. The goal during this closure transition is to avoid a break in service to constituents with open cases. Requests for assistance through the toll free number (1-800-272-3435) will continue to be handled and referred by the Congressman's Raleigh office which will remain open until December 14th. Rep. Miller has been proud to serve the Greensboro area, with an office located in the Triad, for nearly a decade.

Rep. Miller also names Ajashu Thomas as Press Secretary, based in Washington, D.C. Ajashu has served as Press Assistant and Legislative Correspondent for the Congressman. She will resume her new duties October 9, 2012. All media inquiries should be directed to: email: ajashu.thomas@mail.house.gov/ phone: (202)225-3032 or (202)510-1974

Thomas replaces former Communications Director LuAnn Canipe who has been named Assistant Administrator for the Office of Strategic Communications and Public Affairs for the Transportation Security Administration in the Department of Homeland Security.
