

Calling All Artists!

ENTER NOW!

2012 Congressional Art Contest Congressman Brad Miller, NC-13

Basic Contest Guidelines:

- Submissions may take the form of paintings, drawings, collage, prints, mixed media, computer generated art, or photography.
- Art must be two-dimensional and measure no more than 28 inches by 28 inches to the outside of the frame, and must not weigh more than 15 pounds.
- Work must be entirely original and address subjects not politically controversial, sensational, or gruesome.

Contact your art teachers for more information.

Open to all advanced artists, whether currently enrolled in art classes or not.

PRIZES:

**Awards based on previous years; we are currently in process of confirming sponsors for 2012 awards**

First Place Winner - STUDENT:

- Winning art hangs in the National Art Show in Washington, DC for a year
- Free airfare to DC for the winning student and one parent
- Kick off reception in DC for ribbon cutting and a special day of activities
- Work framed for free by local Art Supply store*

Second through Fourth Winners - STUDENTS:

- Art displayed for one year in one of the offices: DC, Raleigh or Greensboro
- Work framed for free by local Art Supply store*
- Gift Certificate to Large Art Supply store presented by a Sponsor*

Don't let this extraordinary opportunity to promote your art and enhance your future pass you by! See your teacher for more specific guidelines and application information. Participation Forms are due by January 25, 2012, and a digital image of your art is due by February 22, 2012.