

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – February 11, 2010

---

Contact: LuAnn Canipe or Phyllis Barbour

tel: (202) 225-6089 / email: luann.canipe@mail.house.gov

(919) 836-1313/ email: phyllis.barbour@mail.house.gov

---

Raleigh, N.C. – U.S. Rep. Brad Miller (D-NC) is proud to announce the military academy appointments of seven North Carolina students he nominated to West Point, the Naval Academy and the Air Force Academy.

U.S. Naval Academy

Jonathan Clarke Driesslein attends North Carolina State University on an NROTC Scholarship and is enrolled in the College of Engineering. His parents are Richard and Sandra Driesslein of Wake Forest, North Carolina.

Christopher B. House attends Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh, North Carolina and is the son of Robert and Carolyn House of Raleigh, North Carolina.

U.S. Military Academy (West Point):

William Allen Killinger III attends Ravenscroft School in Raleigh, North Carolina and is the son of William and Joyce Killinger of Raleigh, North Carolina.

Ian King Morris attends Granville Central High School in Stem, North Carolina and is the son of Adam and Lucia Morris of Oxford, North Carolina.

Camille C. Runyans attends Needham B. Broughton High School and is the daughter of Robert and Pamela Runyans of Raleigh, North Carolina.

Kenneth J. Yacynych attends Grace Christian School in Raleigh, North Carolina and is the son of James and Judith Yacynych of Raleigh, North Carolina.

U.S. Air Force Academy:

J. Ethan Davis attends McMichael High school in Mayodan, North Carolina and is the son of Scott and Michelle Davis of Stoneville, North Carolina.

"These are some of our most promising future leaders," Rep. Brad Miller said. "A career in our nation's military is a high calling, and I am proud of the hard work, diligence and patriotism of our nominees."

Rep. Miller will congratulate each of the 2010 service academy appointees, as well as other nominees, at a reception (open to the media) at A Call to Arms exhibit in the North Carolina Museum of History on February 17th.

Who: Rep. Brad Miller, service academy nominees and their families

What: Academy Reception

When: Wednesday, February 17, 4 P.M. to 6 P.M.

Where: NC Museum of History, 5 East Edenton St., Raleigh

###